

Reverend R. L Heflin Is First Recipient Of Award Established In His Honor

Rev. Heflin accepts the newly established Clark-Heflin-Terry Award at the 2009 Martin Luther King, Jr. program put on by the Alabama Democratic Coalition (ADC) at First Baptist Church - Riley Street in Roanoke, AL on January 19th. While Rev. Heflin received a plaque, framed awards were also presented to Cotina Terry who accepted for her father, Roy Terry. Gene Thornton accepted the award on behalf of his cousin, Wilkie Clark. The purpose of the award is to recognize individuals that have shown a sustained commitment to improving the political and social conditions of African Americans in Randolph County.
